This is to certify that the tenancy deposit detailed below has been received by Tenancy Deposit Safeguard and is held by the scheme in its custodial account for the duration of the tenancy.

At the end of the tenancy the deposit will be repaid as agreed between the parties. If the tenant and the landlord or agent cannot agree how the deposit should be divided, either party may refer the disagreement to the scheme's free alternative dispute resolution service, whose decision is binding on the scheme. The deposit remains protected until any dispute is resolved.

The tenant should also have received the prescribed information about how the deposit is protected. This certificate can be verified at any time at tenancydepositsafeguard.example/verify by quoting the scheme reference above together with the tenant's surname and the property postcode.

Keep this certificate safe — you will need the scheme reference to request repayment of the deposit at the end of the tenancy.
