Instructions for Employee

Notice to Employee

Do you have to file? Refer to the federal filing instructions to determine whether you are required to file a tax return. Even if you do not have to file, you should file if you can claim a refundable credit or had income tax withheld from your pay.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask Brightpath Payroll for a corrected statement (Form W-2c). Be sure to ask the payroll provider to file the correction with the tax authorities.

Box 1.

Shows your total taxable wages, tips, and other compensation. Amounts deferred to a 401(k) arrangement (see box 12, code D) are not included in box 1.

Box 2.

Shows the total federal income tax withheld from your pay during the year. Include this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your return.

Boxes 3 and 5.

Show wages subject to social security and Medicare taxes respectively. Elective deferrals under code D remain subject to these taxes, so boxes 3 and 5 may be larger than box 1.

Box 12 codes (extract).

D — Elective deferrals to a section 401(k) cash or deferred arrangement. C — Taxable cost of group-term life insurance over $50,000. DD — Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (not taxable). W — Employer contributions to a health savings account.

Box 13.

The "Retirement plan" box is checked because you were an active participant in your employer's 401(k) plan; this may limit the deduction for traditional IRA contributions.

Box 14.

Your employer uses this box to report New York Paid Family Leave contributions, which are after-tax payroll deductions.

Boxes 15 through 20.

Show state and local wages and income tax withheld. Use these amounts when completing your New York State and New York City returns.
